MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS

VOL. XLIII | MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE, MIDDLEBURY, VT., MAY 15, 1947 | NO. 43

Marshall Jenkins Plans To Leave Midd in June

To Be President Of Pierce School In Boston Mass.

Marshall Jenkins, associate professor of psychology and Chaplain of Middlebury college for the past three years, has been appointed president of the Pierce school, Boston, Mass., according to an announcement made by officials of the Boston school this morning.

Mr. Jenkins will leave Middlebury in June for Harvard university where he will complete his work for a Doctorate of Education. On September 1 he will assume his presidential duties at the Pierce school, one of the oldest and highest-ranking of the East's secretarial schools.

President Samuel S. Stratton, upon accepting the resignation of Mr. Jenkins this afternoon, said, "I want you to know that I sincerely appreciate your friendly co-operation, the conscientious performance of your duties, and your loyalty and competence as a member of our faculty. I shall miss you as a colleague, but I congratulate you on your new opportunities, and wish you every success in the important undertaking in which you are venturing."

Mr. Jenkins, in a statement to the CAMPUS, said, "I shall miss my many student and faculty friends, and I regret leaving Middlebury college which I have grown to love deeply and to admire greatly during my three years on her campus."

Midd Life Satirized In 'Too Little Time' Student Musicale

Arthur C. Buettner '48

"Too Little Time," the lavish varieties conceived and produced by the student body, will be presented Saturday, May 17 at 8.15 p.m. in the Middlebury High School gymnasium as an intergral part of the 1947 Junior Week.

This production is an attempt to install musical comedy as a distinctly important part of the college theatrical year, satisfying a desire which has been growing among Middlebury men and women for a complete manifestation of stage possibilities. "Too Little Time" would seem to be the incorporation of the high entertainment value of musical comedy in a sparkling satire of college life, 1947 style.

The nine acts which comprise "Too Little Time" are drawn from the realities of college in general and Middlebury College in particular. The scope of this production is rather large with a cast of over sixty men and women. Much original music, written and arranged by Benjamin F. Bradley '48, who will play and sing in his Hoagy Carmichial style, has been included. The Black Panther "combo" will occupy the pit and play the orchestral accompaniment.

The idea of a student varieties was originally a modest one which was inaugurated by A. Ronni McKenney '48, Kaye Sturges '48, and Robert Kaufman '48. Their enthusiasm for bringing collegiate humor into the realm of the theater caught on. With the collaboration of William A. Wilson '47, Natalie J. Simpson '47, Janet L. Rice '48, and Jane M. Livsey '49, the show was written and, ultimately, produced.

S. Cooke Chosen By Student Union To Be President

M. Sue Cooke '48, president; Louise M. Gerlitz '49, vice-president; Irmgard Nierhaus '48, chief justice; Dorothy V. Britton '49, secretary; and Jean C. Webster '48, treasurer, are the newly elected officers of the Student Union of the Women's College.

The officers were elected at a meeting of the Student Union held in Mead Memorial Chapel at 7.30 p.m., Tuesday, May 13.

Miss Cooke became president of Student Union on the third ballot. A sociology major, she has been active in college activities as vice-president of Student Union, managing editor of Kaleidoscope, secretary of Student Life committee, in WAA sports, Women's Assembly, French Club, Women's Forum and on carnival committees.

On the fourth ballot Miss Gerlitz was chosen vice-president of Student Union. She has been active as a member of chapel committee, Literary Club, Interfaith, Women's Assembly, carnival committees and was vice-president of her class last year.

The chief justice, Miss Nierhaus, has participated in campus activities such as WAA sports, Women's Forum, Players, Interfaith, Spanish Club, SAA, and was class secretary in her freshman and sophomore years.

Like Miss Nierhaus, Miss Britton, the secretary of Student Union, was named to her position after the third ballot was taken. Miss Britton, recently awarded the annual Pan-hellenic scholarship, has worked as an assistant business manager on the CAMPUS staff and was named editor last week of the 1949 Kaleidoscope.

Miss Webster, the newly elected treasurer of Student Union, has been active in Women's Assembly, chapel committee, Mountain Club, Women's Forum, carnival committees, WAA sports, and Players.

The balloting for Student Union officers extended over a period of two hours since three or four ballots had to be taken because of the many ties. While waiting for the votes for each office to be counted, the members of the Women's College sang college songs.

MIDD WSSF DRIVE TOPS $2000 GOAL

The WSSF drive of last week brought in $2,034.26, topping the goal of $2000. set by co-chairmen Doris M. Smith '48 and Joan L. Biggs '48.

The men's college contributed $589.74, the women's college donated $792.13, and the faculty and administration gave $130.25. The campus-wide starvation meal brought in $186.64 and CAMPUS ads totaled $335.50.

Middlebury, by superseding the desired total, contributed a more than ample share of New England's $100,000 goal. Of these WSSF funds, approximately one third will go for European student relief and one third to China. The balance will be used for work in the Far East, North America and for administrative expenses.

The co-chairmen of this year's WSSF drive have commended student spirit and co-operation, citing them as vital factors in the campaign's success. A pamphlet will be compiled by members of the Middlebury WSSF committee containing facts, figures and comments on the 1947 drive, with suggestions for a bigger and better one next year.

Singing Tradition To Be Continued In Annual Contest

The tradition of Step Singing will be continued this year when the four classes of both colleges compete for honors Sunday, May 18, at 7.15 p.m. on Mead Chapel steps.

The co-chairmen of the Step Singing committee are Ray Sacher '47 and Barbara J. Bates '47. George H. Booth '47 is master of ceremonies. The judges, who will pick a winning class from both the men's and women's colleges, are Prof. John T. Andrews, Prof. Bruno M. Schmidt, and Mrs. Erie T. Volkert. They will use as their criteria expertness and polish of performance, originality of composition, and percentage of class participation.

The program, which will include original songs by each class, is as follows:

Senior men: Ray Sacher, conductor—"Strength in Song," words and melody by Mr. Sacher; "Twilight Song," words by Mr. Sacher; "Middlebury Hail," words and music by Mr. Sacher (revived).

Senior women: Barbara J. Bates '47, conductor—"Middlebury Dreams," words and music by Eunice A. Goodfellow '47; "Senior Farewell," words and music by Miss Bates.

Junior men: Alan E. Ericson '48, conductor—"The Love That We All Owe Midd," arrangement by Benjamin F. Bradley '48 (adapted); "Loyal Men of Midd," adapted; "Hymn to Middlebury," words by Paul J. Vyrros '48.

Junior women: Sara L. Peck '48, conductor—"Twilight," music by Miss Peck, words by Virginia M. Knudsen '48 and Marilyn Drake '48; "Alma Mater," revived with additional words by Gloria A. Greenley '48; "Forward Middlebury," music by Miss Peck and words by Camille H. Buzby '48 and Katherine H. Spaulding '48.

Sophomore men: F. William Kroeck '49, conductor—"Sugar, Snow and Gold," words and music by Ferdinand C. Vetare '49; "Prayer," music by Mr. Kroeck and Robert E. Seixas '49.

Sophomore women: A. Lois Quirk '49, conductor—"Winter Patterns," words and music by Miss Quirk; "Change of Pace," music by Alice C. Hardie and words by Miss Hardie, Jean D. Holmberg '49 and Joan E. Keller '49; "Rally," words and music by Barbara J. Burris '49.

Freshman men: Wendel H. Agne '50, conductor— First song to the tune of "Annie Laurie," words by Michael Tanes '50 and William Philcrantz '50; "Middlebury Traveller," words and music by Mr. Agne; tune of "All Through the Night," words by John A. Henderson '50 and Charles R. Wright '50.

Freshman women: Louise G. Laverie '50, conductor—"We Belong to You," words and music by Virginia C. Worley '50; "White Spires" words and music by Lois J. Rapp '50; "The Bells of Middlebury," music by Miss Laverie and words by Vera E. Ulrich '50.

MEN'S GOVERMENT HEADED BY McGUIRE

Donald B. McGuire, Jr. '48, was elected president of Men's Undergraduate Association, the governing body for the men's college, it was announced today.

McGuire has been active in extra-curricular activities. He was a member of Men's Assembly in his freshman year, Interfraternity Council representative from Chi Psi this year, a member of Blue Key, and of the senior choir. He participated in JV football in his freshman year, and track as a sophomore.

The balloting took place both on Friday, May 9, and Monday, May 12. The committee from Men's Assembly, which conducted the elections, reported that approximately 270 ballots were cast, out of a total men's registration of 622.

Midd Traditions Return In Junior Week Gaieties

6 New Members Will Join Faculty Next September

Six new faculty members will join the Middlebury College teaching staff in September, 1947.

Robert R. Wilson will undertake his duties as assistant professor of psychology. Mr. Wilson has been teaching at Upsala College where he is at present a candidate for an Ed.D. degree to be conferred on him this June.

Mr. Harry Hopkins Hubbell, Jr., is to be associate professor of physics. Mr. Hubbell received his A.B. degree at Williams, his M.S. at Lafayette and Princeton, and is teaching at Williams while finishing his doctorate at Princeton for a degree this June.

Mr. J. Laurence Phalan will lecture in economics at Middlebury. He is teaching at Boston University where he is a candidate for a Ph.D. degree. In the past he has attended Boston College and Harvard.

Mr. A. S. Clayton will assume the position of associate professor of education. Mr. Clayton received his A.B. degree from Wesleyan and his Ph.D. from Columbia. He has been teaching for several years at Western Illinois State Teachers' College in Macomb, Ill.

Miss Viola L. Diebold will be the new instructor in physical education for women. Miss Diebold received her B.S. degree from Ithaca College and has been teaching for several years at the North Tonawanda High School in Tonawanda, New York.

Mr. Lewis W. Miller of the Texas College of Arts and Industries will be the new assistant professor of speech and drama. Mr. Miller holds an M.A. degree in speecch from the University of Iowa.

Lewis W. Miller of Texas College of Arts and Industries, Kingsville, Texas, will join the Middlebury college teaching staff in September.

Mr. Miller, who holds an M.A. degree in speech from the University of Iowa, has had teaching experience in both high schools and colleges.

At Middlebury he will teach a speech course, the new playwriting course and a new survey course in dramatic production besides assisting in Playhouse work.

Mr. Miller spent four years in the United States army with 2 years in Europe.

Assembly Votes To Replace Cane

The Memorial Fund cane, cut down over the week-end, will be replaced by Men's Assembly, it was decided at an Assembly meeting held last Tuesday night.

The giant wooden cane, replica of Gamaliel Painter's bequest, and barometer of the success of the current drive for $700,000 for the memorial fund, was cut down sometime Saturday night or Sunday morning. The Men's Assembly, in voting the $25 necessary for its replacement, warned that a recurrence of the act would not only be a further affront to the memorial fund but also to the Men's Assembly, since they have paid for its re-erection.

It was also voted to retain the present proctor system; however, the method of election of the president of the Men's Undergraduate Association was questioned, in view of the poor showing of the Men's College in the recent elections. Edward F. Cooke '47 was appointed chairman ex-officio of a committee to investigate new methods of election for this office.

Junior Prom To Feature Band Of Bruce Stevens

Tomorrow night Bruce Stevens and his orchestra from Boston will open Junior Week activities with the Junior Prom.

Dancing will be from 9 p.m. to 2.30 a.m. permissions granted to the Women's College. Guests at the dance will include Prof. and Mrs. John G. Bowker, Mr. and Mrs. John Chalmers, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Guarnaccia, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur K. D. Healy, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Holden, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John R. Illick, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Stratton, and Dean Mary F. Williams.

On Saturday, following the baseball game and tennis match with St. Michael's the fraternity houses will hold tea dances, and several will serve buffet suppers.

The Variety Show, a new feature of Junior Week, will take place on Saturday night at 8.15 p.m. in the high school gym. This is a completely original show composed, directed and performed by campus talent. The proceeds of the show, which is dutch treat, will be given to the Middlebury Memorial Fund.

The weekend which is under the direction of Paul J. Vyross and Kaye I. Sturges '48 concludes on Sunday evening at 7.15 p.m. with the traditional step singing ceremony, which will be held on the steps of Mead Chapel.

Junior Week, in pre-war years, was designed to acquaint potential Middlebury students with the college and its social life. Applicants for admittance to the college were invited to Middlebury for the weekend. Because of the numerous applicants for each vacancy, however, Junior Week's original purpose has been abandoned.

6 Juniors Tapped By Mortar Board In Chapel, May 14

Joan L. Biggs '48, Sally A. Finley '48, Gloria A. Greenley '48, Helen L. Hicks '48, Virginia M. Knudsen '48, and R. Elaine Phillippi '48 were tapped by Mortar Board in daily chapel on Wednesday, May 14. The new members were chosen on the qualities of service, leadership, and scholarship, having an average of 83.1 for the past five semesters.

Miss Biggs has been active in Student Union, Mountain club, French club, Humanities, and S. A. A. of which she is now the vice-president. She is majoring in French and world affairs.

Miss Finley, a political science major, was on Dean's list for two years. She has been active in Student Union, Mountain club, Women's Forum, S.A.A., and as house president of Hepburn and Junior Marshal this year.

Miss Greenley, majoring in American literature, is the secretary of Student Union this year. She has been active in Mountain club, Literary club, French club, Middlebury College Players, and on Winter Carnival committees. She was also on Dean's list for two years.

Miss Hicks, a major in home economics, has been active in Student Union, Mountain club, Women's Forum, and W.A.A. sports. She was on Dean's list for two years and has been chosen for co-chairman of the 1948 Culture Conference.

Miss Knudsen, a political science major, was on Dean's list for two years. She has also been active in Student Union, Mountain club, Women's Forum, S.A.A., Winter Carnival committees, and is the

(Continued on page 6)

MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS

Member
National Collegiate Press Association

Formerly
The Undergraduate
Founded in 1830

Entered as second-class matter, February 28, 1913, at the post office, Middlebury, Vermont. Subscription Price $3.00 a Year.

Member
Associated Collegiate Press
Distributor of Collegiate Digest

REPRESENTED FOR NATIONAL ADVERTISING BY
National Advertising Service, Inc.
College Publishers Representative
420 MADISON AVE. NEW YORK, N. Y.
CHICAGO • BOSTON • LOS ANGELES • SAN FRANCISCO

MURIEL E. MACK '47 — MARGARET K. MATULIS '48
Co-Editors-in-Chief

J. ANNE SAURMAN '48, Managing Editor
JOHN W. RUMBOLD '49, Sports Editor
EDITH TITUS '48, Business Manager
ANNALIESE M. KOSTER '47, Advertising Manager

ASSISTANT EDITORS

Charles H. Pope '48, Jane D. Baker '49, Roswell T. Edwards '49, Gerald W. Elbers '49, Ben Fisher '49, Mary E. Hemeon '49, Anita M. Liptak '49, Virginia C. Main '49, Robert J. Simpson '49, Mary C. Seacord '49, Ellen Taussig '49, Dorothy H. Weil '49

NEWS STAFF

Richard H. Stokes '50, William J. McKinley '50, Marilyn S. Campbell '50, Bernard Cohen '50, Adolph E. Meyer, Jr. '50, G. Valerie Field '50, Margaret Gordon '50, Alice C. Hardie '49, Janet E. McIntosh '50, Don A. Beldon '50, Allan R. Dragone '50, Francis I. Nash '48, Anne E. Meyer '50, Margaret A. Teachout '50, Priscilla A. Wood '50, Arthur C. Buettner '48, Bard E. Lindeman '50, Louise G. Laverie '50, Lawrence F. Willard '49, John J. Moriarity '49

Photography—Lee M. Adkins '50

ASSOCIATE BUSINESS MANAGERS

John B. Packer '48, Jane M. Potter '48, Norma L. Reinicker '48

ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS

Henry Bloch, Jr. '49, William J. Rice '49, Rebecca J. Belisle '49, Dorothy V. Britton '49, Mary C. Fisher '49, William R. Johnson '49

VOL. XLIII — MAY 15, 1947 — NO. 3

Put Up or Shut Up!

Criticism, and not the constructive variety, has been the great highlight of the activities of most students here at Middlebury. There has been no priority on criticism—that we have had in plenty—but when it comes to a little drive to help improve the object of such bitter verbal battles, there are too many little men that aren't there.

As a stunning example of this disappearing act, take a look at the recent elections for Men's Undergrad President, elections that were well publicized in advance, and where more than adequate time was set aside for the balloting. After much fanfare, the Men's College batted a dazzling average, when 270 out of their total enrollment of 622 presented themselves at the polls. This staggering turnout is proof positive of the serious thought and intention behind much of the criticism from that quarter.

But let's not confine ourselves to one category of college or one organization. This inconsistency between talk and ability to produce is prevalent throughout the whole student body, and is aimed at every organization worth criticizing. You don't rate on this campus unless criticism leveled at you has been coming loud and fast. Don't get the idea that this is a beef about criticism itself. We don't mind that; but we do believe that if you want to criticize, lend emphasis to your criticism by an HONEST EFFORT TO IMPROVE THE CONDITION OF THE OBJECT OF YOUR CRITICISM. This has not been done. As a specific instance of this, recall the number of criticisms shouting dirty politics and fraternity pull that you have heard leveled against the Undergrad Association and compare them with the turnout for the elections just held, and the answer is obvious. These criticisers don't give a damn, and are just talking to hear themselves talk.

It's about time that you, the sluggard, and the sneering lords of this campus, should get a bit of what you've been handing out.

It has become the accepted thing to ridicule the honest effort of others. When others have made mistakes, many students have had the gall to make derogatory remarks about them. You laugh yourself sick at the other fellow who may be making a fool of himself, under the impression that he is helping himself and his college. It's a huge farce to you who haven't got the guts, or enough drive to stick to a job until it's finished. But isn't it a little sad that the fellow with more on the ball can't at least work in peace?

Then there is one word that you like to use, laughing derisively as you say it. "He's a wheel, or at least a good-sized spoke." What's the matter? Are you jealous? Dig down in that shriveled-up thing you call a heart and admit it—you are jealous! No one ever stops to consider that the world doesn't go round on flat bottoms. It takes a "wheel" to make things move. Flat-bottomed boats may be good for the shallow work, but they always need a tow.

So here come the excuses. "We're married." "We're not taking pipe courses like the rest of you guys." "Time? Who's got any time?" And a dozen more I haven't got the ingenuity to think up. Why not just knock it off, and say that there are too many people here only to get a degree, and then leave the place forever. That's the real answer. If the interest were there, the time would be there.

What's the use? The same people will go on slaving for themselves and for the college. The same "wheels" will keep turning, without any push from you. It would be nice if they had a little outside help, but they haven't. The real point is this: you can lay off the criticism now. It doesn't take more than a sixty-second look to see who is all blow and no go.

PUT UP OR SHUT UP.

DR. D. B. ALDRICH WILL BE SPEAKER IN SUNDAY CHAPEL

Dr. Donald B. Aldrich, dean of Princeton university chapel, will be the guest speaker at vesper services in Mead Memorial Chapel on Sunday, May 18.

Dr. Aldrich received his professional training at the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Massachusetts. After graduating from Dartmouth in 1917, he served as an enlisted man in the Navy during the first World War. In World War II he was a Navy chaplain for three years.

For several years, Dr. Aldrich was chairman of the Church Congress, an organization founded for the free discussion of theological, social, liturgical, and industrial questions. He is a member of the Commission on Worship of the Federal Council of Churches and recently served on the New York Academy of Medicine committee.

In this Sunday's vesper service the freshman chorus will sing a traditional melody, "Let All Things Now Living."

Players To Depict Philly High Society

Louise G. Laverie '50

The versatile Players, catering to the finicky tastes of Midd playgoers, have ascended the social ladder in three great bounds. First, there was Mama (and Papa), who had everything except money, including a "chin up, but with tear-dimmed eyes" philosophy.

Then they climbed up from the "peasants," as campus bourgeois would say, to the middle class and plumbing trouble in "George Washington Slept Here."

Now, the college Thespians can look down their "I came over on the Mayflower" noses from the social heights of their latest vehicle, "The Philadelphia Story." This will present to us "squares in the social circle," a keyhole view of one of The families of Philly, complete with errant papa (with misgivings), philandering uncle, red-headed daughter with man trouble plus, and a wise cracking adolescent. Sound human? It all goes to prove that soap opera intrigue prevails in spite of "do-re-mi," and love is still spelled with a capital "L" in the upper stratas.

What would you do with a father who had an affinity for Broadway actresses? (Besides get her phone number!) After all, things do get rather involved when the heroine is out with Interested Suitor No. 2, with No. 1 warming the altar, and Mr. Ex. prowling around with dripping fangs and a howl on his lips. (Is this Main Line or Middlebury?) The plot is

(Continued on page 4)

Calendar

Friday, May 16

9.30-2.00 p.m. Junior Prom at the high school gym.
4.30 p.m. Miss Olive Dean's tea for Forum executives at the Community house.
CAMPUS editorial staff meeting.

Saturday, May 17

3.30 p.m. Midd vs. St. Michaels' baseball game at St. Michael's.
8.15 p.m. Variety Show in high school gym.
1.30-11.30 p.m. Chi Psi picnic at Ecole Champlain
8.00-11.30 p.m. Alpha Tau Omega novelty party
5.00-7.00 p.m. Theta Chi informal tea dance

Sunday, May 18

7.15 p.m. Step singing at Mead Chapel.

Tuesday, May 20

7.00 p.m. Party for faculty in Forest.
4.30 p.m. Choir practice.

Wednesday, May 21

7.15 p.m. Student Union installation.
3.30 p.m. Midd. vs. St. Lawrence baseball game here.
5.30 p.m. Mortar Board banquet
8.00 p.m. Spanish club program.

Thursday, May 22

7.00 p.m. Choir practice.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

In your article concerning President Stratton's clarification of the Burlington Daily News story, you stated that President Stratton advised that, "Student expression is misdirected in that the students in no colleges assume the roles of administrators. . ." If we are to accept this as true, then how can Dr. Stratton possibly have censured the off-campus action of the Student Action Assembly (note the word student) as capable of being construed as official college policy, and therefore not allowable. If the undergraduate group in this school that petitioned for re-consideration of Dr. Rafuse cannot act as administrators and dictate college policy, why then should another group of undergraduates (the Student Action Assembly) be restrained because their actions may be construed as college policy? Either undergraduates are determinants of college policy or not, but let's have no talking on both sides of the issue by the administration.

We have not received satisfaction from the administration on several issues. If we are to abide by its decisions the least we can ask is consistency.

LARZER ZIFF '48

Open letter to President Stratton:

Dear Sir:

I am a member of the undergraduate body. I am a veteran of the recent war. I am a voting citizen. I am not an official spokesman of the students. I am not a paid rabble-rouser. I am not a Communist. The following statements are of my own composition. The opinions expressed in them are my own. They are not, however, only my own. They are shared by a large segment of the college community. But it is because I, myself, am deeply concerned over the future of Middlebury and this country that I believe what I have to say deserves your attention.

A year and a half ago I applied for admission to this institution. I did so of my own volition. I also applied for admission to other institutions and was accepted at several. Only Middlebury could guarantee room and board at the time. I, therefore, came to Middlebury; moreover, I came in spite of, not because of, chapel regulations.

My impressions of Middlebury were strong and positive. I weighed its good points and bad, and found the former outweighing the latter. I wished to multiply its virtues and eliminate its faults. I discovered my efforts and those of others to eliminate obvious inadequacies were negated by an administration which reflected, so it seemed to me, the sentimentalities of alumni who had forgotten the faults and only remembered the virtues. I did not find the continuance of the existing situation intolerable, but I did not find it altogether satisfactory. I still do not find it so; furthermore, I know my ability to tolerate the present situation is determined in no small degree by he difficulty encountered in arranging a transfer. In fact, my only free choice is whether I wish to attend college or not. It is not a difficult choice to make.

Since arriving at Middlebury I have taken two courses taught by Dr. Rafuse. In my considered opinion he is one of the most intellectually competent men on campus. I do not believe the failure to renew his contract is attributable to incompetence. I am led to suspect that academic freedom has been suppressed through cognizance of the following facts:

I know that many of the ideals Dr. Rafuse believes worthy of working toward necessitate changes in the present political, economic and social status quo; I know there is a tremendous struggle in this country between those advocating changes and those opposed to little or any change; I know there are men on the Board of Trustees who are among those against any real change; I know of other instances when professors, especially social scientists favoring changes, have been dismissed by trustees favoring retention of the status quo; I know the country is in the throes of a post-war Red Hunt; I know many liberals and and progressives are victims of the "purifying" process; I know the "It Can't Happen Here" attitude is bankrupt; I know it can happen here; I know that Dr. Rafuse was the first president of the local chapter of the American Association of University Professors; I know other colleges and universities have resisted the efforts of such an organization. I know it is possible that resistance here could have taken the form of a dismissal.

I do not know that this has happened, but in view of the foregoing facts, I believe I have cause to suspect it. I would like to know whether I am right. I did not find your remarks in last week's CAMPUS clarifying; on the contrary I found them evasive. They only strengthened my suspicions. If my suspicions are correct and academic freedom has been infringed upon, I believe it is my duty not only as a Middlebury student but as a citizen in a democracy to protest strongly against such suppression of ideas whether the administration thinks it appropriate or not.

If I am wrong, which I sincerely hope I am, more positive proof must be presented to allay my suspicions and those of the Burlington Daily News which reflects but does not create my opinions, than your statements of last week. I believe I have a right to something more concrete before I abandon my suspicions. I believe others who share my opinions have the same right. Surely, it is to the future welfare of Middlebury and the country if some factual evidence is presented to destroy these suspicions. If none is presented they will only grow.

I remain yours in working for a better Middlebury,

RAYMOND A. MOORE '49

To the Editor:

I have noted that much-needed reform of Middlebury lecture halls has not received editorial treatment. I refer to the surging hordes of dogs now apparently auditing our best courses. They take no notes (which is a bad example to the stu-

(Continued on page 6)

News In Paragraphs

"Rosina es Fragil," a one-act play in Spanish will be presented by members of the Spanish Club on Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Munroe 303. Robert Lustburg '50 and Sylvia M. Ellsworth '50 will play the leads in this Martinez Sierra production.

George C. Newcomb '48 and Roswell T. Edwards '49 debated the negative of the question Resolved That extensive government controls over our economic life are desirable in peace as in war, in a radio debate with Union College May 13. The debate was broadcast over station WJOY, in Burlington.

Pres. Samuel S. Stratton has been invited to deliver two commencement addresses, one June 5 at Buffalo Seminary, Buffalo, N. Y., and the other June 7 at Dean Academy, Franklin, Mass.

W.A.A. elections will be held Friday, May 16 after lunch in each of the women's dormitories. The candidates are: Camille H. Buzby '48, Joan L. Sherman '48 and Doris J. Maurer '48 for president; Patricia A. Perkins '49, Lura L. Williams '49 and Margaret Drysdale '49 for vice-president; Virginia Hardy '50, Lois J. Rapp '50 and Margaret A. Teachout '50 for secretary; and Janet I. Goeltz '48, Sally A. Fisher '48 and Elizabeth P. Reid '48 for treasurer.

Veterans Administration officials urge that veterans consider the following before claiming accumulated leave at term's end.

Use of earned leave means an additional subsistence allowance payment, but the trainee's period of entitlement is reduced accordingly. For example, a veteran having sixteen months' entitlement remaining and who contemplates two additional school years to complete his education needs to conserve. Also, time spent in the classroom brings the additional benefit of paid tuition; used leave time gives subsistence allowance alone.

Panthers Victorious In Weekend Win Sports; Track, Baseball, Golf, Tennis, Sailing

Midd Track Team Defeats Hamilton Sat., 101½-24½

The Middlebury track team defeated the Hamilton squad by a 101½ to 24½ score last Saturday, in their only scheduled home track meet of this season. The Panthers won all eight track events taking all scoring places in six of them. In the field events they won four, tied one, and lost one. A clean sweep was made in only one of the field events.

Midd's Whitey Pearlstein scored a double victory in the 100- and 220-yard dashes, as did co-captain Dave Stebbins in the 440 and 880 events. In the 220-yard dash Pearlstein was hard-pushed by Morris who placed second. The mile event was easily won by Dave Dale, while George Hartz, with his usual strong kick, placed second. Jim Newman, who placed third in the one-mile run, breezed around the track in the two-mile event to take an easy first. Bob Mason and Gus Gustafson crossed the finish line, holding hands for a second-place tie. Roy Kinsey, who placed first in the 120-yard high hurdles, was an easy second in the 220-yard low hurdles until he tripped over one of the last hurdles, thereby losing several precious seconds; however, he still placed third, co-captain Don Gilmore taking first.

In the shot-put Marty Whittlin bettered Cullun of Hamilton with a 41-foot pitch. Dix Hemphill and Hal Parker tied for first in the high jump by clearing the bar at five feet, seven inches. "Dix" tied Randall of Hamilton for first place in the pole vault, crossing the bar at 11 feet. Fred Kracke tossed the discus a distance of 112 feet, 4 inches to take first in that event. The javelin throw was won by Bob Reed who threw the spear a distance of 171 feet, 6 inches.

This week the track team travels to Worcester, Mass., for the Eastern Intercollegiate Track Meet. The Panthers will be up against such teams as the highly favored Tufts and Bowdoin squads.

SUMMARY

100-yard dash—1st, Pearlstein (M); 2nd, Morris (M); 3rd, Buettner (M); time, 10.1 sec.
220-yard dash—1st, Pearlstein (M); 2nd, Morris (M); 3rd, Buettner (M); time, 22.6 sec.
440-yard run—1st, Stebbins (M); 2nd, Meeker (M); 3rd, Bangs (M); time, 51.7 sec.
880-yard run—1st, Stebbins (M); 2nd, Dragone (M); 3rd, Gore (M); time, 2 min. 6.2 sec.
Mile run—1st, Dale (M); 2nd, Hartz (M); 3rd, Newman (M); time, 4 min. 45 sec.
Two-mile run—1st, Newman (M); 2nd, Mason (M) and Gustafson (M); time, 11 min. 3.5 sec.
120-yard high hurdles—1st, Kinsey (M); 2nd, Randall (H); 3rd, Gilmore (M); time, 16.9 sec.

(Continued on page 6)

The Intramural Trophy

Art Buettner

The photograph which accompanies this week's Intramural Trophy is that of the new Ericson-MacDonald Memorial Trophy, a cup to be awarded each year to the organization which accumulates the most points in intramural sports.

The Ericson-MacDonald cup was donated by the parents of William F. Ericson '43 and Thomas A. MacDonald '43 to be awarded by Alpha Mu of Chi Psi in the memory of the seven members of Alpha Mu who were lost in the war.

The Intramural Trophy stood the possibility this week of being non-existent. Every scheduled softball game was either rained out or called off because of wet grounds. The softball schedule has now been revised with games to be played at 7.00 p.m. as well as at 4.30 p.m.

Chi Psi Takes ASP in Baseball

Johnny Rumbold, the Rambling reporter, pitched the Chi Psis to a 6-4 win over the Alpha Slugs on Sunday morning to make it two in a row for the Chipsies in the Sunday morning baseball league. Al Mapes pitched for the downtowners.

Apologia

The score books being what they are, it was not the least bit difficult for this reporter to confuse issues last week in charging the DU Club with a loss in the softball round robin. This was erroneous; the DU Club had at that time won every one of its contests.

YOU GET EXTRA LIVELINESS from the new center in the Spalding and Wright & Ditson tennis balls. Tests prove they have uniform high bounce — at the top of USLTA rebound standards. Let 'em liven up your game!

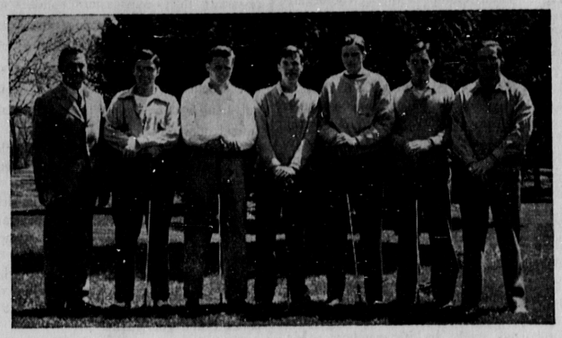
SPALDING SETS THE PACE IN SPORTS

Wright & Ditson takes honors as the only tennis ball used in the National Championships for 60 years... and in every Davis Cup match played in the U. S. Official ball of most bigtime tournaments is either Spalding or Wright & Ditson —both made by Spalding. Play your best with one of the Twins of Championship Tennis.

Both Made by Spalding

Middlebury Wins Vermont State Golf Championship



The new Vermont state golf champions. Standing from left to right are Coach "Duke" Nelson, Jim Marchese, Ray Nihan, Rowland Boucher, Don Bates, Bob Boucher and Captain Al Wolfley.

Netmen Overwhelm N.Y. College Easily In 2nd Match, 7-0

The Middlebury College tennis team, playing what might be called a conditioning match, easily defeated the tennis team of New York State Teachers' College last Friday, 7-0.

From the start it was evident that the opposition was not of top caliber which was borne out by the fact that the visitors did not take a single set.

Captain Al Rice, Vermont State Champion, started the slaughter by defeating Mullen of Teachers' College, 6-2, 6-0. Bob Parker continued the rout by easily downing Oarr, 6-1, 6-0. Then the two teamed up to take another one from Mullen and Root, 6-1, 6-0.

Seab Short, Ad Merrick, Felix Rohatyn, and Hal Richardson finished up the day by taking the last four matches. Seab defeated Root, 6-2, 6-4; Ad took Merritt, 6-1, 6-4; Felix downed Fersh, 6-1, 8-6; and Seab Short worked with Hal Richardson to beat Oarr and Merritt, 6-1, 6-4.

This was the second victory for the Panthers. In their first test they defeated Union, 5-4. The Middmen played well but the opposition was not of the type which brought out their best playing. Despite this, Captain Rice and Bob Parker played a sterling set of doubles.

Contrary to the usual practice, only seven matches were played instead of the regular nine. This was due to a shortage of Teachers' College men.

At the time of this writing Middlebury is competing at Williams in the New England Intercollegiate Lawn Tennis Association meet. At this meet the best teams in the East will compete. Nevertheless, Middlebury shows good possibilities of placing several men among the winners, having come a long way since the start of the season.

Panther Golf Squad Defeats Vermont, St. Michael's

Last Saturday, at Rutland, the par and birdie boys took the Vermont State Intercollegiate Match from UVM and St. Michael's—Midd 325, UVM 357, and St. Michael's 375.

Midd's scores were all individually high due, probably, to the lack of competition. The Panther's four lowest scores were: Al Wolfley, 77; Rollie Boucher, 81; Don Bates, 83; and Jim Marchese, 84. The lowest player of the visitors was Gilbertson of UVM with an 84.

Last Wednesday, May 7, the highly favored Dartmouth Indians were upset by the Panther squad 3 to 6. The medal scores were low considering the driving rain and low temperature of 35 degrees that the team faced.

Strong Competition for N. E. I. C.

This Friday, Saturday and Sunday, the Blue and White will compete against Colby, Bowdoin, University of Maine, Dartmouth, M.I.T., Harvard, Northeastern, Boston University, Boston College, Holy Cross, Williams, Amherst, Wesleyan, Connecticut State, Coast Guard Academy and St. Michael's for the New England Intercollegiate championship which is held annually at the Oakley Country Club in West Watertown Mass.

On Friday the qualification match will be held. Eight men from each school may be entered; six must be named as counting for the team score, and the four lowest scores will be counted as the team score. Friday night the winning school will be named and on Saturday the playoffs for the individual title will start. The lowest sixteen men will play Saturday morning, and the winners of the morning's match will play in the afternoon limiting the field to four. The remaining four will play Sunday morning, limiting the field to two, and the match will be concluded Sunday afternoon.

Panther Sluggers Rout Norwich, 13-6

The Midd baseball team made it two in a row last Saturday by downing a stubborn Norwich nine, 13-6, on the windswept Northfield diamond.

It was a slugfest from start to finish with the Panthers making thirteen base hits, including two homers by Valentine and Barquin. The losing Horsemen collected ten solid base knocks. Ferdy Vetare, Midd's bespectacled ace, and Babe Sawyer were the starting pitchers but only Vetare was on hand at the finish. Diminutive Ferdinand withered the storm of the ten Norwich blows, scattering them sparsely enough to be effective, and with the strong support he received from his mates he gained his first victory.

Barquin led the hitting parade with a homer, double, and a single, and drove in six runs. Corbisiero emerged from his slump and also collected three base hits for six trips to the plate, while Valentine, Maurer, and Buonerba each had two safeties.

This Saturday the Panthers will meet St. Mike's in a double header at home as part of the Junior Week festivities.

Midd Women Win First NEA Regatta

The Middlebury Sailing Club won its first women's New England Associate Regatta of the season last week-end Ecole Champlain. The weather was ideal for Midd's sailorettes as they defeated the women's teams from Skidmore and St. Lawrence by a one-point margin. The other two crews battled it out for second-place tie.

The teams from Skidmore and St. Lawrence led the sailorettes from Midd by a considerable margin at the close of Saturday's racing. Joan Kenyon, Joan Kent, and Jean Edgar pooled their sailing abilities Sunday and gained steadily on the other crews. The final race was the deciding one of the regatta. Joan Kenyon skippered her Cape Cod knockabout in the puffy winds that prevailed during the race across the finish line first to bring Middlebury the victory.

Next week-end, Ecole Champlain will be the scene for another N. E. A. regatta as Middlebury entertains the sailing teams from Norwich, Colby, Champlain, and St. Lawrence.

Midd Wins First; Tops Lowell Tech

Lloyd Marshall Pitches; Panthers Hit Well Score: 7-6

The Middlebury baseball nine snapped a four-game losing stream last Saturday by defeating the visiting Lowell Textile team by a score of 7-6.

The game was a hard-fought contest in which the lead changed hands several times. The Panther victory was featured by the brilliant pitching of right-hander Lloyd Marshall along with timely hitting on the part of the entire batting order. Marshall's fast-breaking curve continually cut the corners of the plate, much to the dismay of the Lowell batters.

Panthers Hit Hard

Trailing 3-2, the Panther batsmen unloosed the biggest batting barrage of the season in the sixth inning against Mendrala, the Lowell right-hander. However, much of Mendrala's trouble could be traced to his own wildness. Two walks and a hit batsman combined to load the bases and send Mendrala to the showers. LaCroix then greeted relief-pitcher Gillick with a sharp double just inside first-base. Corbisiero continued the shelling with a single to center scoring two more runs. After stealing second, Corbisiero scored the fifth run of the inning on Buonerba's single.

The Massachusetts team put on a ninth-inning rally which gave the Panthers several bad moments before it had been subdued. After retiring the first two batters, the rapidly tiring Marshall gave up two walks followed by two singles to make the score 7-6 with the tying run in scoring position. However, Pajak ended the game by lining to Fred Neuberger, who made a fine running catch on a ball hit just inside the right-field foul line.

Team Alert on Bases

The Panthers showed some alert baserunning and team play in the first inning. While Maurer was spilling Mathieu, pivot-man in an attempted double play. Barquin raced around third to score when Mathieu's throw from the prone position was dropped by catcher Sandperil. The longest hit of the game was Jack Valentine's long triple clouted into the far reaches of right-center field. By all odds, it was the longest drive yet seen this year on Porter field.

Coach Ciccolella felt extremely relieved that his club had finally broken into the win column. The Panther coach pointed out the improved judgment of his batters in regard to balls and strikes. The continued heavy hitting and improved pitching of the Panthers make them strong contenders to keep their Vermont championship.

Box Score:

Middlebury (7)

	ab	r	h	po	a	e
Barquin, 2b	3	2	1	1	1	1
LaCroix, 1b	5	1	1	12	0	0
Maurer, rf	3	0	1	0	1	0
Masters, rf	2	0	0	0	0	0
Neuberger, rf	0	0	0	1	0	0
Corbisiero, c	5	1	1	8	0	1
Valentine, lf	3	0	1	4	0	1
Buonerba, cf	4	0	1	0	0	0
Sheehan, 3b	3	2	1	1	7	0
Mulcahy, ss	3	0	0	0	6	1
L. Marshall, p	1	1	0	0	1	0
Totals	32	7	7	27	16	4

Lowell Textile (6)

	ab	r	h	po	a	e
Mathieu, 2b	5	2	2	4	2	0
O'Donnell, 3b	4	0	2	0	3	1
Norris, 1b	4	1	1	9	0	0
Stratton, ss	4	2	0	1	1	0
Halpin, lf	5	1	2	1	0	0
Mendrala, p. and cf	5	0	1	1	1	0
Pajak, rf	5	0	1	0	1	0
Sandperil, c	3	0	0	6	2	1
Angelo, c	1	0	0	2	0	0
Sugg, cf	3	0	0	0	0	0
Gillick, p	1	0	0	0	1	0
Totals	40	6	9	24	10	2

Lowell Textile .....0 0 0 1 1 1 1 0 2—6
Middlebury .....1 0 0 1 0 5 0 0 0—7

Earned runs—Middlebury 6, Lowell Textile 3. Runs batted in—LaCroix 2, Corbisiero 2, Buonerba, Norris, Pajak, Mendrala 2. Two-base hit—Pajak, LaCroix. Three-base hit—Valentine. Wild pitch—Mendrala 2. Balks—Mendrala. Hit by pitchers—Mendrala (Maurer and Marshall). Struck out by—Mendrala 5, Gillick 4, Marshall 6. Bases on balls off—Mendrala 6, Gillick 2, Marshall 5. Losing pitcher Mendrala.

The Middlebury golf team defeated the Wesleyan team by a score of 6-3 on the Rutland links, Tuesday, May 13. Al Wolfley, Bob Boucher, Roly Boucher, Ray Nihan, Don Bates, and Jimmy Marchese played for Midd.

"Gibbs for me"

• Hundreds of college girls elect to take their secretarial training at Katharine Gibbs because they are assured excellent preparation — and extra-interesting positions to choose from. Lifetime personal placement service in four cities. Write College Course Dean.

KATHARINE GIBBS

NEW YORK 17.....230 Park Ave.
BOSTON 16.....90 Marlborough St.
CHICAGO 11.....51 East Superior St.
PROVIDENCE 6.....155 Angell St.

"SCULLIONS' BALL" TO BE HELD MAY 24

The waiters and waitresses of the college dining halls will hold their annual Sculliions' Ball Saturday, May 24, at the Bread Loaf Inn.

The Ball, originally scheduled to be held in the high school gym, will be an informal dinner-dance this year. The guests, including all student workers in the dining halls, will be driven up to Bread Loaf in trucks for the banquet which begins at 5 o'clock. Record dancing is planned for the remainder of the evening.

ADMISSION SOUGHT IN AIR ASSOCIATION

The Middlebury Flying Club is applying for membership in the newly organized Association of Northeastern College Flying Clubs, Daniel T. Hedden '49, president, announced today.

Four representatives, Mr. Hedden, Lionel Slater '49, Margaret K. Matulis '48 and Mary Hosford '49, attended a meeting and banquet of the association at the Hauf-Brau Haus in New Haven, Conn. Nine member clubs were present, having previously participated in the Northeastern Intercollegiate air meet.

Mr. Hedden stated that the Middlebury club will only be able to have a limited participation because of the small size of the club's membership, and its low dues. Some of the member colleges are able to give their flying clubs financial support, whereas the Middlebury organization is supported solely by its members. Mr. Hedden stated that the officials of the association anticipated that the A.N.C.F.C. would be able to give financial help to small colleges after the organization has been in operation longer, in order that they may participate in flying events on the same level with larger colleges.

The aims of the association were stated as follows:

1. To foster collegiate aviation.
2. To stimulate intercollegiate activities and friendly rivalries.
3. To hold an annual northeastern intercollegiate flying meet under standardized procedure.
4. To better the bargaining position and general prestige of collegiate flying clubs.

MT. CLUB SPONSORS I.O.C.A. CONVENTION

One hundred and forty delegates, representing thirty-one eastern colleges and Outing Club alumni attended the Intercollegiate Outing Club Association conference held at Breadloaf summer school last weekend. The Middlebury Mountain Club was host for this, their fifteenth annual conference.

At a business meeting Woody Meckes of Swarthmore College was elected executive secretary, succeeding Charles A. Butts, Jr. '48, of Middlebury. The delegates accepted the invitation of the Dartmouth Outing Club to be host to next year's conference.

The purpose of the conference, while having its lighter moments, is to exchange ideas on individual club activities, policies and equipment.

The activities of the weekend were favored by fine weather. Delegates began to arrive Friday, each with his or her own sleeping -bag. The summer school dormitories were used for sleeping, and meals were served by members of the Mountain Club.

Informal football and softball games, square dancing, and hiking occupied spare time. On Saturday evening Al Smith and his band from Boston played for a square dance. It included a great variety of round and square dances simplified by an expert caller.

The McGill Mountain Club, which was in attendance, announced that it planned to hold its first winter carnival in 1948. Most of the mountain clubs, like Middlebury's, sponsor winter carnivals at their respective colleges. The prime purpose of all the mountain clubs is to encourage open-air activity while exploring the hills and mountains surrounding their colleges. No club has a more favorable location in which to accomplish this purpose than does Middlebury.

Dancers Present Successful Show

Molly E. Hemeon '49

If variety can be called the spice of life, the Spring Dance Concert given by the Middlebury Modern Dance club was indeed successful. The program included dance presentations ranging from a comic interpretation of Aesop's fable, "The Donkey," to the abstract but extremely well-executed conception of T. S. Eliot's poem, "Hollow Men."

Although most of the numbers were group presentations, individual members of the group displayed their abilities at dance composition in solo numbers. Jean H. Mace '47, dancing to the music from "Spellbound," ran the gamut of emotions with unusual grace. Alice C. Hardie '49 danced with precision and enthusiasm in her dance interpretation of the "Rival Fire Dance" music. If coyness can be expressed in the art of the dance Janet McIntosh '50 accomplished this feat in her dance depicting the pursuit of a sunbeam. Barbara T. Myers '49 and Virginia C. Main '49 both ably portrayed the colors black and blue respectively in their solo numbers.

The audience especially enjoyed "The Donkey," narrated by Barbara J. Burris '49 and interpreted by a group of 14 dancers. The fact that the dancers were actually enjoying this number themselves greatly enchanced the dance and transferred some of the enthusiasm to the audience.

Players To Depict Main Line of Philly

(Concluded from page 2)

stirred until perceptibly thickened when a magazine reporter and his photogenic photographer appear on the slightly deranged domestic scene. In a carefree life of cocktails, soirees and brisk canters, all is definitely not sweetness and light, and ah . . . what a magazine spread that would make!

Try and put this garbled description of the plot into a sparkling comedy, with airy sophisticated dialogue. Can't do it? Phillip Barry did do it, and it makes a mighty good story. (Philadelphia, that is.)

Backstage buzzes have it that the coming play will be given on two levels. This might mean that there will be a special performance in words of one syllable for morons, but more likely the rumor refers to Mr. V's dazzling set. Not only will you see the porch happenings, but you'll get a squint inside the house too, which is more than you can accomplish with your neighbors back home! One more inkling divulged by secretive stage hands over the living room fireplace will be hung an original Picasso, by Mr. Healy. You'd better mull that one over between acts!

SAM SAYS:
"You Do The Calling
And We'll Do The Hauling!"
34-W FOR TAXI SERVICE

We Have Two Barbers
to Serve You
MIDDLEBURY BARBER
SHOP
(Near Diner)

Fine Fur Garments
Cold Storage
High Class Repairs
W. E. GRACE CO.
"Furriers"
128 MERCHANTS ROW
RUTLAND VERMONT
PHONE 96 — "SERVICE BLDG."

F. B. HOWARD CO.
Jewelers
and Silversmiths
7 Center Street
RUTLAND VERMONT

New England Color Studio
Color Processing
Product Illustrations
Photo Supplies Resort Photography
Scenics Color Prints
TEL. 190-J

Get Your Feet
Into a Pair of
White Buck Shoes
★ ★
FARRELL'S

Complete Line of Shoe Accessories
At the
MIDD ELECTRIC SHOE SHOP

CHARLES G. CASTLE
Watchmaker and Jeweler

Homemade Donuts
And Ice Cream
Also Choice Sandwiches
J. W. MATHEWS

I.G.A. STORE
C. A. METCALF
High Quality Meats
Groceries
Vegetables
Good Service
Reasonable Prices
Phone 219

LEO WISELL
Coal
PHONE 93

The National Bank of Middlebury
Over a Century of Service
Without Loss to Any Depositor
Member of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

FOR FOOD THAT CAN'T BE BEAT
The DINER is the place to eat
•
SMITH BROTHERS
PARK DINER

THE MIDDLEBURY INN
"Vermont's Finest Colonial Inn"
WILLIAM HEARNE, Manager
DINING ROOM
Steaks – Fish – Chops – Fowl
Excellent Cuisine — Reasonable Prices
Breakfast 7:30 - 9:00 — Lunch 12:00 - 2:00
Dinner 6:00 - 8:00

McAULIFFE'S
Books — Stationery
College Supplies
Engraving — Toys
BURLINGTON

WHITE
AND TAN
OXFORD
BUTTON-DOWN SHIRTS
• SANFORIZED • PEARL BUTTONS • SLIGHT SPREAD COLLAR •
AN OUTSTANDING VALUE AT ONLY $3.95
THESE SHIRTS ARE WORTH $4.95
SEND EXACT COLLAR SIZE AND SLEEVE LENGTH - YOUR CHOICE OF WHITE OR TAN - YOU'LL WANT SOME OF EACH! ENCLOSE CHECK OR MONEY ORDER FOR $3.95 EACH SHIRT. IF YOU ARE NOT SATISFIED RETURN THE SHIRTS TO US AND WE WILL PROMPTLY REFUND THE FULL AMOUNT
• IMMEDIATE DELIVERY • POSTAGE PREPAID •
This is the second in a series of value offerings by this well known shop
AS ADVERTISED IN OUR FIRST AD !!
ALL WOOL OXFORD GREY FLANNEL SLACKS ! $12.95
ENCLOSE YOUR EXACT WAIST MEASUREMENT WITH YOUR CHECK OR MONEY ORDER FOR $12.95
NATIONALLY ADVERTISED BRANDS THROUGHOUT CAMPUS MEN'S SHOP INC.
ADJACENT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY
1475 AMSTERDAM AVE. AT 116TH ST. N.Y. 27, N.Y.

September 1947 Class Schedule

M W F	A. L. 21.1B Chem. 21.1 C. C. 11.1A Dram. 21.1 Eng. 10.1A Eng. 11.1B Fr. 21.1BM Fr. 32.1 Hist. 12.1B Hist. 32.1 Ital. 35.1 H. E. 31.1 H. E. 41.1 Math. 10.1 Math. 41.1 Mus. 36.2 Phil. 23.1 Russ. 25.1 Soc. 42.1 Span. 11.1B Span. 43.1	Biol. 21.1 Econ. 21.1F Econ. 41.1 Eng. 10.1B Eng. 11.1C Eng. 28.1A Eng. 30.1B Eng. 34.1 Fr. 12.1B Fr. 42.1 Geog. 34.1 Ger. 11.1A H. E. 31.1 Math. 11.1B Math. 21.1B Phil. 37.1 Phys. 31.1 Psy. 20.1B Soc. 21.1B Span. 11.1D Span. 21.1B	Biol. 11.1 Chem. 31.1 Chem. 43.1 Econ. 21.1A Econ. 31.1B Eng. 22.1 Eng. 33.1 Fr. 12.1A Fr. 31.1 Geol. 21.1AB Ger. 21.1 H. E. 11.1A Math. 21.1A Mus. 21.1 P. E. 41.1 P. S. 20.1 Psy. 20.1A Russ. 11.1A Soc. 21.1A Soc. 43.1 Span. 21.1A	A. L. 21.1A Chem. 11.1 Chem. 12.1 Econ. 21.1B Econ. 31.1A Educ. 33.1 Eng. 11.1A Eng. 30.1A Fr. 21.1A Fr. 44.1 Geol. 21.1CD Hist. 22.1A Hist. 34.1 H. E. 11.1A Math. 21.1A Mus. 11.1 Phil. 11.1A Phil. 34.1 Phys. 11.1 P.E. 40.1 Russ. 11.1B Span. 31.1A	Biol. 11 A-M C-W Biol. 42 MW Chem. 11A MW Chem. 12 MW Chem. 23 MW Chem. 31 WF Chem. 41 W Chem. 49F Dram. 24.1 MWF Draw. 23.1 MF F. A. 25.1 MWF Fr. 11.1A MWF Fr. 12.1C MWF Geog. 25A-M Geol. 21A-M D-F Geol. 31.1 WF H. E. 21.1A WF Phil. 11.1B MWF Phys. 11.AM Phys. 21A-W C-F Phys. 47 MWF P. E. 21.1 MWF	A. L. 44.1 Econ. 21.1C Eng. 10.1C Eng. 11.1D Eng. 28.1B Hist. 12.1A Mus. 34.2 P. E. 37.1 P. S. 41.1 Psy. 20.1D Span. 21.1C Span. 45.1
T T S	8.00 Chem. 42.1 C. C. 11.1B Dram. 45.1 Econ. 21.1E Econ. 30.1 Econ. 39.1 Educ. 21.1 Fr. 11.1B Fr. 21.1D Geog. 25.1 Ger. 22.1 Hist. 35.1 Hist. 45.1 Mus. 34.1 Phil. 22.1 Phys. 34.1 P. S. 21.1 P. S. 36.1 Psy. 32.1 Soc. 22.1 Span. 44.1	9.00 A. L. 21.1C Chem. 49.1 Eng. 10.1E Eng. 11.1G Eng. 31.1 Eng. 32.1 Fr. 12.1E Fr. 41.1 Hist. 22.1B Hist. 36.1 H. E. 43.2 Math. 11.1D Math. 45.1 P. E. 31.1 P. E. 36.2 Psy. 45.1 Rel. 23.1 Russ. 31.1 Soc. 23.1 Span. 21.1D	10.30 A. L. 31.1 Biol. 31.1 Econ. 21.1D Econ. 42.1 Eng. 11.1E Eng. 28.1C Fr. 21.1C Fr. 43.1 Geol. 32.1 Ger. 11.1C Hist. 41.1 Ital. 25.1 Math. 34.1 Mus. 37.1 Phil. 11.1C Phys. 21.1 P. E. 46.1 Psy. 31.1 Soc. 31.1 Span. 11.1C Span. 31.1C Span. 49.1	11.30 A. L. 42.1 Chem. 23.1 Chem. 41.1 Dram. 31.1 Econ. 34.1 Eng. 10.1D Eng. 11.1F Eng. 24.1 Eng. 35.1 Fr. 12.1D Fr. 46.1 Geog. 35.1 H. E. 33.1 Hum. 20.1 Math. 11.1C Phys. 47.1 P. S. 11.1 P. S. 35.1 Psy. 20.1C Russ. 21.1 Soc. 21.1C Span. 31.1B	1.30 Biol. 11B-T D-Th Biol. 21 TT Chem. 11B TT Chem. 21 TT Chem. 42 TT Chem. 43 TT Dram. 32.1 TT Draw. 27.1TT Econ. 37.2 TT F. A. 36.1 Geol. 21B-T C-Th Geog. 25B T H. E. 11B TT H. E. 21B TT Phys. 11B T Phys. 21B-Th Psy. 46.1 2.00 Mus. 23.1	2.30 Econ. 21.1G Econ. 48.1 Eng. 46.1 Ger. 11.1B Hist. 23.1 Math. 21.2 Math. 42.1 Phil 11.1D P. S. 40.1 Span. 49.1 3.30 Courses, hours to be arranged with the instructor. All. 50.1 Educ. 42.1 Educ. 43.1 Eng. 45.1 F. A. 28.1 Ger. 32.1 Ger. 42.1 Geol. 41.1 Grk. 15.1 Grk. 24.1 H. E. 35.1 Lat. 11.1 Lat. 33.1 P. E. 35.1

New Changes in Curriculum Offered For Next Semester

English D21.1 — Fundamentals of Speech.

English D25.1 and D25.2—Dramatic Production. The development of stage production from the selection and analysis of the script to the final presentation on the stage. 2 semesters. Sophomore level.

English D31.1—Modern Drama. A study of representative plays of important contributors beginning with Ibsen and extending to our own day. 2 semesters. Junior-senior level.

English D42.1—Playwriting. 1 semester. (Permission, Junior and Seniors)

English D45.1 and D45.2—History of Dramatic Art.

English 33.1 and 33.2—Classics in Literature Brown (explained in CAMPUS, May 8).

Fine Arts 26.2—Advanced Practice in Painting. 3 credits.

History 45.1 and 45.2—History of Western Civilization. A general survey of modern civilization from early times to the present. The course is designed with special reference to the needs of students who are able to take only one year of work in the department.

Humanities 20.1 and 20.2—Introduction to the Humanities. First semester—an integrated presentation of the principles of architecture and the fine arts, symphonic and operatic music, poetry and fiction, with some of their philosophical backgrounds, given in collaboration by members of the Department of English, Fine Arts, Music and Philosophy. Designed as an elementary course in general culture. Limited to twenty students majoring in the sciences or social sciences. Mr. Brown in charge. Messers. Andrews, Bedford, Healy.

Music 37.1 and 37.2—Opera.

Music 41.2—Beethoven. A study of the artistic development of Beethoven through his life and works, with special emphasis on later works for pianoforte, orchestra, and string quartet.

Philosophy 38.2—Medieval Philosophy. A study of representative Medieval philosophers from St. Augustine to the 14th Century. (23.1 or 34.1 or permission.)

Physical Education 37.1—Dance as Art Form. To study by means of lectures, discussions, required readings, oral and written reports, the development of the dance as an art form from its earliest beginnings in primitive society to and including the present day. Detailed consideration of leading figures such as Isadora Duncan, Ruth St. Denis, Mary Wigma, and the work of outstanding contemporary dancers and choreographers.

Physical Education 46.1 and 46.2—Recreational Leadership.

(Continued on page 6)

ALUMNI NOTES

Mary D. Dryer '43 has an exchange to teach in Watsford, Herforthshire, England next winter. She plans to spend one summer at the University of Madrid and one at the University of Paris.

Mary Louise Koehler '44 is engaged to Herbert W. Shaw, Jr. of Milford, Mass. Miss Koehler is now writing children's stories and film reviews for the National Association of Manufacturers.

ADDISON COUNTY TRUST CO.
THE BANK OF FRIENDLY SERVICE
Member of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

LEROY C. RUSSELL
Insurance and Bonds
Middlebury Court House
PHONE 38-W

MRS. ATKINS
Wishes to Announce That The NUTSHELL
Will open May 11 and she hopes you will all remember to come down.
MEALS, LUNCHES AND SANDWICHES
At All Hours
COFFEE STILL FIVE CENTS
Lounge

Get out of that rut—
Have a Trudeau cut.
TRUDEAU'S BARBER SHOP

How About
Having Breakfast
At The
Old English Coffee Shop
E. SHERIDAN, Mgr.
MIDDLEBURY INN
Open 7:30 A. M. — 9:00 P. M.
"Vermont's Finest Colonial Inn"
NEW LOWER PRICES
SERVICE COURTESY

For Taxi Service
MARK TURNER
PHONE 64

Jolson Story Album From "The Jolson Story" $3.95.
Wright And Ditson, and Wilson
Nylon Strung Tennis Racquets.
Bix Beiderbecke and Bessie Smith reissue albums on Columbia
Small Electric Grill, Special at $2.95
RICH'S 61 MAIN STREET

"FOOTPATHS IN THE WILDERNESS"
An Instructive, Illustrated Book
About the Long Trail
$2.50
At the
PARK DRUG STORE

For That Afternoon Snack
NICKS
Fresh Daily
Home Baked Pies and Cakes
WE DELIVER CALL 589

Take it from Smoe
Swanson's is the place to go.
A quick snack
And you'll come back.
SWANSON'S

AN OUTSTANDING PEN VALUE!
NEW EVERSHARP CA* PEN
FOR ONLY $6.95 tax free
With all these fine writing features:
• Rolls CA* ink on . . . dry!
• Writes for 3 months to 3 years without refilling.
• Always starts. Never starves.
• Reloads cleanly — with a CA* Cartridge —in 15 seconds.
CA* means Capillary Action Cartridge
$6.95 tax free
Choice of modern colors
SEE IT! TRY IT! BUY IT!
Vermont Drug, Inc.
"The Rexall Store"

COMPLETE LINE OF NEW BATHING SUITS
Be Prepared For Warm Weather
Come In And Make Your Choice Early
At The
GREY SHOP

MIDDLEBURY INN GIFT SHOP
Many Interesting And Worthwhile Gifts
FOR GRADUATION
New Compacts And Cigarette Cases
MRS. HAZEL FLANDERS, Manager

EMILO'S
SHOE HOSPITAL
First Class Shoe Rebuilding While You Wait
Polishes, Laces and All Accessories
Shoes Dyed and Refinished any color
Complete Line of U. S., Royal, Goodyear and Blit-Rite Rubber Heels Attached while you wait!
NEXT TO GOVE'S MIDDLEBURY, VT.

Printing . . .
FOR EVERY COLLEGE REQUIREMENT
FREE PRESS PRINTING CO.
189 College St. Burlington, Vt.

Remember Us For Corsages
For COMING FORMALS
C. G. COLE & SON
PHONE 27-W 73 MAIN STREET

Carter To Direct Midd Conference For Composers

The Middlebury College Composers' Conference and Chamber Music Center, instituted last summer, will hold their second session August 16-18. Alan Carter, founder and director of the Vermont State Symphony and member of Middlebury's music department will direct both the Conference and the Center.

The aim of the Composer's Conference is to provide a program of discussion, instruction, and performance for those interested in composing professionally, and for those desiring a better general understanding of how serious composing is accomplished.

The purpose of the Chamber Music Center is to afford an opportunity for the professional and amateur instrumentalists to perform under expert guidance. Emphasis is placed on repertoire and interpretation. A Chamber Orchestra composed of staff, center members, and composers rehearses daily under the baton of Mr. Carter.

Mr. Carter's staff, which will be composed of figures well known in the music world includes prominent musicians, teachers, editors, publishers, composers, and critics; included among them are Otto Luening, Paul Spivak, and Richard F. Donovan.

Students and staff will be accommodated in Le Chateau and adjoining buildings. The charge for membership in either the conference or the center is $140 which covers tuition, board, and room. Each Chamber Music Center application must be accompanied by a letter of recommendation from a teacher or prominent musician. Application blanks should be turned in to Mr. Carter. Blanks, bulletins, and general information can be secured from the central office of the Secretary of the summer schools.

Midd Track Team Defeats Hamilton Sat., 101½-24½

(Concluded from page 3)

220-yard low hurdles—1st, Gilmore (M); 2nd, Murphy (H); 3rd, Kinsey (M); time, 26.8 sec.
Discus throw—1st, Kracke (M); 2nd, Faber (M); 3rd, Wittlin (M); distance, 112 ft. 4 in.
Shot put—1st, Wittlin (M); 2nd, Cullun (H); 3rd, Ferguson (H); distance 41 ft.
Javelin throw—1st, Reed (M); 2nd, Gilmore (M); 3rd, Benjamin (H) and Dyrdal (H); distance, 171 ft 6 in.
High jump—1st, Hemphill (M); and Parker (M); 3rd, Ashley (H); height, 5 ft. 7 in.
Broad jump—1st, Langa (H); 2nd, Babcock (H); 3rd, Meeker (M); distance, 20 ft. 3 in.
Pole vault—1st, Hemphill (M) and Randall (H); 3rd Parker (M) and Close (H); height, 11 ft.
Team score: Middlebury, 101½; Hamilton, 24½.

Town Hall Theatre
Phone 26-M
K. GORHAM, Proprietor

FRI.-SAT. MAY 16-17
Matinee Saturday 2.00 p.m.
Victor Hugo's Immortal
"LES MISERABLES"
Starring
FREDERIC MARCH
CHARLES LAUGHTON
Plus
Jimmy Wakely in
"RIDERS OF THE DAWN"
Also Serial, "CRIMSON GHOST"

SUN.-MON.-TUES. MAY 18-19-20
Matinee Tuesday 3.15
Direct to us from the Criterion theatre, New York City where it set house records!
Merle Oberon George Brent
Charles Korvin Paul Lukas
"TEMPTATION"

WED.-THURS. MAY 21-22
Matinee Thurs. 3.15
"THE MICHIGAN KID"
In Technicolor
Starring
JON HALL RITA JOHNSON
VICTOR McLAGLEN

LEON GAY ELECTED COLLEGE TRUSTEE

Leon S. Gay has been elected a life member of the Board of Trustees of Middlebury college, according to a recent announcement made by President Samuel S. Stratton.

Mr. Gay is the treasurer, director and sales manager of Gay Brothers company, Cavendish, Vt. He has been with Gay Brothers since his graduation from Brown university in 1906 and has served as a member of the Vermont House of Representatives, Vermont Senate, Governor's Emergency Board and as Director of the Vermont Conference of Municipalities. In 1942 he was appointed a Middlebury trustee for a term of five years.

Middlebury students will remember Mr. Gay as the representative of industry's viewpoint in the 1947 Cultural Conference.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

(Concluded from page 2)

dents) and their attitude seems to be against the interests of the college. There is nothing more disturbing than the cold snout of a drooling mutt during a pre-A.

They do not attend classes with the desire of improving themselves, but rather in the hope that they may work themselves into places of high standing in the dog-biscuit corporation of some alumnus. It is with considerable discomfort and embarrassment that the chivalrous male members of canine-infested classes drag the reluctant beasts to the nearest exit.

Apparently these dogs are under the impression that attendance at classes will add to their prestige or qualify them for entrance in the exclusive kennels around Chipman Park. How about a refuge for the homeless in back of the power plant?

FRANCIS I. NASH '48

Mortar Board

(Concluded from page 1)

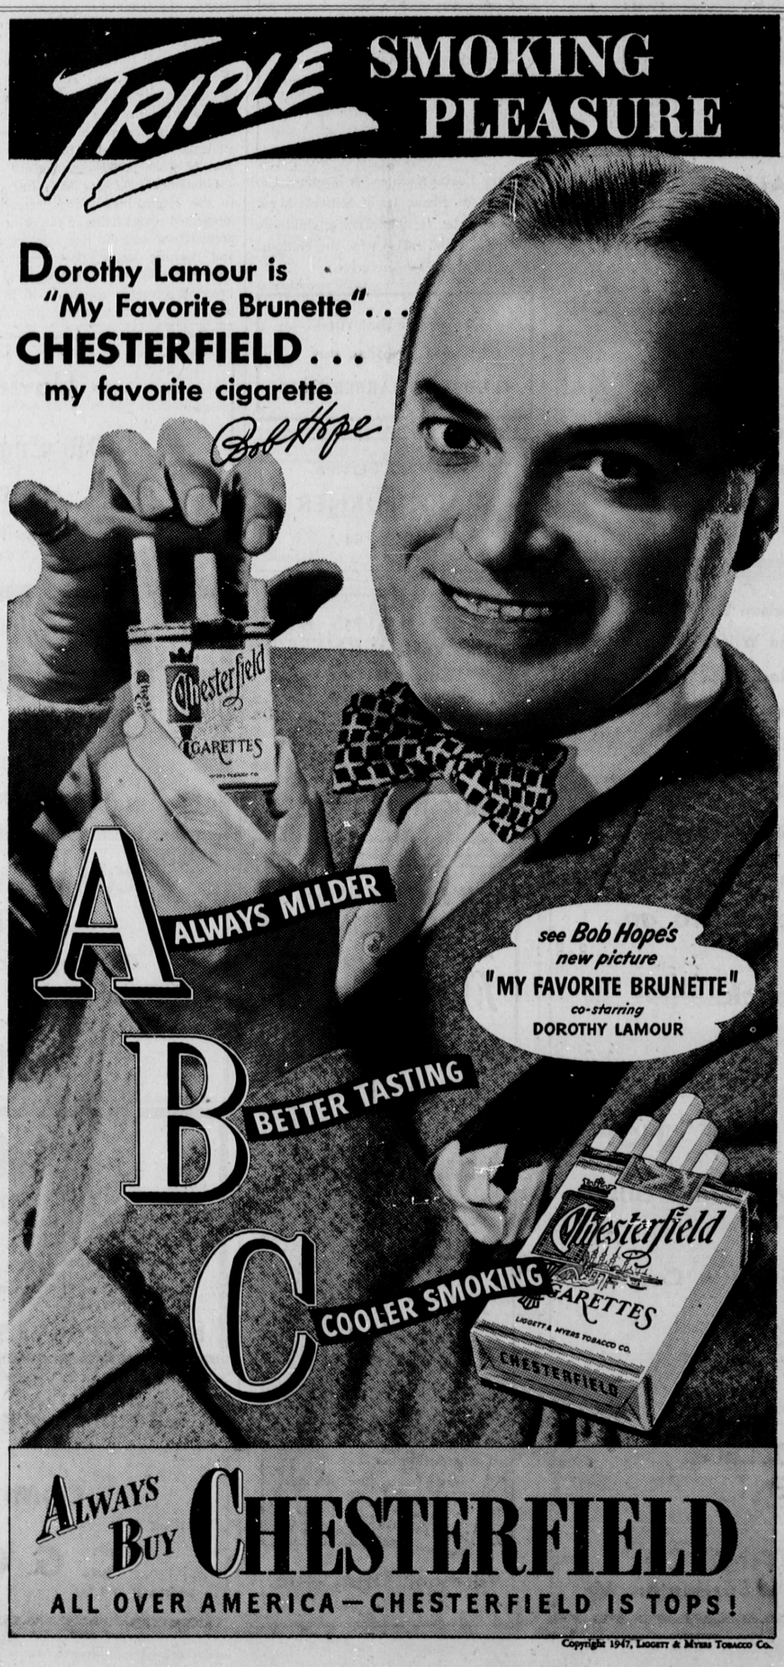
president of the International Relations club.

Miss Phillippi, majoring in psychology, is the business manager of the Kaleidoscope this year. She has been active in Mountain club, Women's Forum, Middlebury College Players, Winter Carnival committees, and Choir. She was on Dean's list for one year.

Initiation will take place at 9:00 on Sunday morning, May 18, in Forest West living room. Miss Elizabeth Baker will speak at the banquet to be held at the Middlebury Inn on Wednesday, May 21, at 5:30.

The old members, new members and advisors, Miss Baker, Mrs. Reginald L. Cook, and Mrs. W. Storrs Lee, will attend.



Copyright 1947, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

New Courses

(Concluded from page 5)

Physics 23.2—Elementary Meteorology and Navigation. An introductory course covering the basic principles of both subjects. Designed primarily for students who may be interested in aviation.

Political Science 35.1 and 35.2—Politics and Government of the Far East. A study of the international relations of the Far East. The first semester will deal largely with China, Japan, and Korea. The second semester will be devoted to an examination of the problems of Southeastern Asia, including India, Indo-China, the Dutch East Indies, and islands of the Pacific. The course is an extension into two semesters of Course 35.2 being given the present term. Two semesters. Junior level.

Political Science 36.1 and 36.2—Foreign Policy of the United States. Two semesters at Junior level.

Russian 50.1 and 50.2—Advanced Study in Language and Literature. Students who have the proper qualifications may undertake a special problem in reading and research. (Permission.)

NOTICES

From Sunday, May 18, to the end of the term, fines in the reserve book room are to be doubled by the decision of the faculty library committee. Forty cents will be charged for the first hour books are kept overdue and twenty cents for each additional hour.

Monthly lists of newly arrived books are now available at the library.

The winners of the 20-minute airplane rides drawn at the Flying Club-S. A. A. dance, May 3, are: Fox B. Holden '48, George C Newcomb '48, George H. Grant '47, Robert H. Hoagland '49, Gloria A. Greenley '48, Dorothy L. Daggett '49, Priscilla J. Davis '49, Anita M. Liptak '49, Asst. Prof. Howard M. Munford, and Eva Hebert. The winners are asked to contact Daniel Hedden '49 in order to make arrangements for their flight.

Alumni Note

June A. Robinson '45 is engaged to George M. Reenan of Beacon, New York.

Mary Nasmith '46 and Donald T. Means '47 were married on April 5, in New York City.

Campus Theatre

Tues.-Wed.-Thurs. 3.00 P. M. Matinee
Matinee Fri. 3.20 P.M.
Evenings 6.30 P.M.
All seats, all shows 50c inc. tax

FRIDAY—MAY 16
Last Day!!!
"THE JOLSON STORY"

SATURDAY MAY 17
"NORTHWEST MOUNTED POLICE"
In technicolor
Gary Cooper Madeline Carroll
Chap. No. 8—JACK ARMSTRONG

SUN., MON., TUES. MAY 18-19-20
"NORA PRENTISS"
Starring
Ann Sheridan Kent Smith
NEWS

WEDNESDAY MAY 21
One day only!!!
"THE BEAST WITH FIVE FINGERS"
Peter Lorre Robert Alda
NEWS COMEDY

THURS.-FRI. MAY 22-23
"SWEETHEART OF SIGMA CHI"
Starring
Phil Regan Elyse Knox
"THIS IS AMERICA" SPORTSCOPE
MUSICAL PARADE